

Quiang Huang Workshop 2015

Still Life Oil Painting

Date: Dec. 8,9,10
Time: 9:00-4:00 pm

Tuition: $375.00
Location: to be determined

Qiang's approaches to still-life painting will be demonstrated with particular focus on composing dramatic setups by observing the light distribution, and using bold and loose strokes to create an powerful and accurate representation on canvas. Using demonstrations, presentation, and individual assistance, Qiang will explain his process of creating energetic paintings by manipulating values, colors, edges, and brushwork. Personal attention will be given to each student according to his/her currently skill level and personal goals in art. This workshop is designed for indoor practice with live settings. As a self-representing artist, Qiang will also share his experience of marketing art using the internet tools. He will demonstrate how to advertise artwork using blogs, websites, email newsletters, and on-line galleries. His way of using ebay to conduct on-line sales will be introduced, including image capturing, posting, selling transactions, and shipping. As a self-discipline and an effective way of communication, Qiang will discuss his daily-painting practice.

Qiang Huang (pronounced as Chong Wong) came from china. He has studied art from multiple master artist like David Leffel and Sherrie McGraw. His paintings show remarkable accuracy and expressive brush strokes. Since 2004 his paintings have been selected continuously for the 14th, 15th, 16th, and 18th, Oil Painters of America's National Juried Exhibitions. American Artist Magazine has featured his teaching on the summer issue of the "Workshop". His updated work can be seen on his blog: <http://Qiang-Huang.blogspot.com>
